

Database

| | |
|-------------|--|
| Entry Date | 2024-03-08 |
| Source | Kawamoto K, Martin CJ, Williams K, et al. Value Driven Outcomes (VDO): a pragmatic, modular, and extensible software framework for understanding and improving health care costs and outcomes. Journal of the American Medical Informatics Association. 2015;22(1):223-235 |
| Link | Link |
| Source Type | Empirical study |
| Domain | Groups |
| Subdomain1 | Organisations - hospitals |
| Subdomain2 | Value based healthcare |
| Key Points | A detailed account of the systems and software developed by the University of Utah Health Sciences to support their Value Driven Outcomes program. Notable for the high levels of support from end users - mostly physicians |
| Citns | 109 |